THE WORSHIP OF GOD Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time Father's Day				Some wandered in desert wastes, finding no way to an inhabited town; hungry and thirsty, their soul fainted within them. Then they cried to the Lord in their trouble, and the Lord delivered them from their distress, leading them by a straight way until they came to a safe place.			W

Almighty God, who created us in your own image, and who desires that your kingdom come on earth as it is in heaven: Grant us grace fearlessly to contend against evil and to make no peace with oppression; to use reverently our freedom in order to maintain justice in our communities and among nations; and to nurture love and respect in our homes and families, that the love and patience we learn there may issue forth in kindness and ministry to the suffering, the friendless, the troubled, the lost, and those in need.
