I Danced in the Morning I danced in the morning when the world was begun, and I danced in the moon and the stars and the sun, and I came down from heaven and I danced on the earth. At Bethlehem I had my birth.			I Danced on a Friday I danced on a Friday when the sky turned black; it's hard to dance with the devil on your back; they buried my body and they thought I'd gone, but I am the Dance and I still go on.
Fairest Lord Jesus			O Master, Let Me Walk with Thee
I Danced for the Scribe and the Pharisee I danced for the scribe and the Pharisee but they would not dance, and they would not follow me. I danced for the fishermen, for James and John; they came with me and the Dance went on. I Want Jesus to Walk with Me			My Jesus, I Love Thee Congregation please join in singing when invited to do so. (see insert) STRIPPING OF THE ALTAR Please exit the sanctuary in silence.

John 15: 1a, 4a, 8

I am the true vine. Abide in me as I abide in you.

By this is my Father glorified, that you bear much fruit and become my disciples.

I am the vine and you are the branches.

Those who abide in me, and I in them, do bear much fruit, because apart from me you can do nothing.
